Cemtery - Watson and Russum
Location - At Russum, Claiborne County, Mississippi, several miles south of Port Gibson, just off Highway 61.

Copied and submitted by - Miss Frances A. Cook
Address - Crystal Springs, Mississippi
Date copied - October 31, 1948

Note: This cemetery is on a knoll near the site of the old plantation home formerly considered one of the finest in Claiborne County. Several very large cedars in the cemetery had been recently felled (1948).
The bodies in this cemetery had been placed in vaults made of brick and fine marble. One of the graves had been disturbed and a large marble slab broken.

Note: My guide was an old colored man of the old school, Louis Orey, who now lives in the old Bolls home over 100 years old. Louis was raised by Mrs. Sarah E. (Griffing) Bolls and Mr. William E. (Uncle Billy) Bolls. He stated they had three sons: Frank, Ed (Edward Livingston) and Jasper. Frank and Jasper settled in Madison Parish, La., across from Vicksburg. Their mother is buried in this cemetery. Neither she nor Mr. Bolls have a stone at their grave. James Franklin (Frank) Bolls married Cora A. Marble 21 May 1891 and had: Estelle and Frank Bolls, Jr., who is now living in Washington, D. C. Ed married Sarah Emily Griffing, lived and was buried in Vicksburg. Jasper never married. Uncle Billy was the son of Mathew Bolls and lived until his 80's (b. 1812). - Gordon M. Wells.
